VINNY GOES TO THE UN

WHAT MUST BE DONE FOR THE WORLD'S POOR?

Did you know there are faith-based NGOs at the United Nations...and that they include the Vincentians? As the Vincentians' rep at the UN, Guillermo Campuzano, CM, discusses the connection between charity, political advocacy, and systemic change—what he calls the “Vincentian triad of justice.” The NGO, in the spirit of St. Vincent de Paul, asks “what must be done?” at the global level to uphold the dignity of the poorest and most vulnerable among us.

Poverty—Vincentian Responses around the World

St. Vincent de Paul said, “Go to the poor: you will find God.”
This charism is lived out across the globe in the work done by the hundreds of groups—both lay and religious—that comprise the International Vincentian Family.

Guillermo Campuzano, CM, leads the Vincentian International Coalition for Justice, Peace, and Integrity of Creation at the UN and also chairs its NGO Working Group to End Homelessness. A DePaul alum, he also served the university in ministry and as an adjunct professor from 2007 to 2015.
